

Does That Make Me a Bad Person?

Last Updated Friday, 27 April 2007

This dark comedy follows Marilyn. When she neglected to phone her boyfriend Eric for five years, there was no harm intended - she was just really, really busy. Now he's come to visit, and won't leave. as errands and annoying little tasks, like last year's tax return, pile up, Marilyn copes the only way she knows how - by putting things off. But as things go from bad to worse, what is simply a bad habit takes a darker twist.

Reviews "If you just watch Tony Papa, I think you'll see another director in the making who is going to do very well this year." -Terry David Mulligan, talking about "Does That Make Me A Bad Person?" on CFOX Radio, January 1998

Credits Starring Leslie Jones & Chris Nelson Norris
Producer Tony Papa
Director Tony Papa
Screenplay by Sharon Gibbon based on a monologue by Liz Rosch
Director of Photography: Glen A. Dickson
Editors: Daria Ellerman & Tony Papa
Original Music by Shaun Tozer
Post Production Facilities: Avanti Pictures