

Film School in 3rd Year

Last Updated Thursday, 19 March 2009

The Powell River Digital Film School, founded by Tony Papa in 2008, is operating in partnership with Brooks Secondary School in Powell River, B.C. The Digital Film School is open to any Grade 12 student in B.C. (billeting available). Upon successful completion of the course, students are guaranteed enrollment and fast-tracked into Capilano University's motion picture program.

The Digital Film School's program is a 16-credit course, and operates annually from February 1st until the end of June. Applications are being accepted for the following year. Please contact Jim Palm or Tony Papa at (604) 483-3171.
